

2023

AAUW

Year in Review

1

47K+ MESSAGES SENT

AAUW's Two-Minute Activist network sent more than 47,000 messages to elected officials.

2

52K+ MEMBERS

More than 52,000 members and thousands of donors supported AAUW – including nearly 450 college and university members and over 700 branches across the country.

3

4-STAR RATING

AAUW earned 4-stars, Charity Navigator's highest rating, recognizing our commitment to best practices and industry standards in accountability, finance, culture, and community.

4

4.2K PEOPLE TRAINED

AAUW's salary negotiation and financial literacy trainings continued to be AAUW's most sought-after programs, reaching 4,227 people in 2023, and 197,679 people to date.

5

NCCWSL RETURNED

AAUW successfully brought back in-person the National Conference for College Women Student Leaders, featuring 500 students from 170 campuses, 50 sessions, and notable speakers.

6

4.7 MILLION VIEWS

AAUW's message of activism and advocacy for equity for all received nearly 4.7 million views across Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn, and X (formerly Twitter).

7

150+ HILL OFFICES VISITED

AAUW's tireless Lobby Corps resumed visits to Capitol Hill, visiting more than 150 congressional offices to advocate for legislation that uplifts and advances women's equity and access to opportunity.

8

135 YEARS OF FELLOWSHIPS

We celebrated the 135th anniversary of AAUW's pioneering American Fellowships Program – our largest fellowship program and the oldest non-institutional source of graduate funding for women in the U.S.

9

$6.1 MILLION AWARDED

AAUW awarded $6.1 million in fellowships and grants to 277 awardees, maintaining our leadership as the nation's largest non-institutional funder of women's graduate-level education.